

Conviction Follows Trial

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out.

Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

Lion Coffee,

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

LION COFFEE is sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages, and reaches you as pure and clean as when it left our factory.

ling me with the execution of the fresco. I had long been in rebellion, practicing in secret my lawless ideas, and I was seized with an uncontrollable aversion to marring those holy walls with the conventional ugliness commanded by the ritual. I assembled my ideas and dared. I worked rapidly and well. The work was done before my father discovered it. Kenekes paused and laughed a little.

"Suffice it to say the fresco was erased. And the solemnity of the crypt was hardly restored before my father found that his sacred signet, which he always wore, was gone. Nay, nay, I might not search for it more than the fruitless one, for he declared and of a truth believed firmly that the great king had reclaimed his gift. I did not and never have I believed it. Now I need the signet, and I shall go after it on the strength of that belief.

"Having found it, I shall appeal to Menephtah for thy liberty and safety and whatever boon thou wouldst have and for myself. What thinkest thou? Shall I go on?"

Rachel smiled and looked up at him gratefully.

"I will go with thee, Kenekes," she said.

Once again the silence fell and was not frequently broken thereafter.

There was no invitation in her manner, and he could not speak with her would.

The sun dropped behind the Libyan hills, and the heights filled with shadow. At length he said:

"It is time."

Lifting her to her feet, the ape attending them, he went toward the Nile hand in hand with Rachel, his love all untold.

CHAPTER XIV.
THE TREASURE CAVE.

THE sudden night had just fallen, and there was an incomplete moon in the west. But already the desert was full of feeble shadows and silver interstices, and all that tense silence of evening upon unpeopled localities.

Kenekes stood upon the top of a huge monolith, listening. Below, with only her face in the faint moonlight, was Rachel, looking up to him. Anubis, oppressed by the voiceless expectancy of the two young people, crouched at his master's feet. For awhile there was only the ringing turmoil of his own quickened blood in the young man's ears, but presently up from the southern slope rose the sound he had heard some minutes before—a long, quivering note, ending in a high eerie wail.

"Some one calleth of a surety," he said, "and by the voice it is a woman."

"It is Deborah, come up from the camp to seek for me!" Rachel exclaimed.

With all the haste possible on the rough slope they descended. The ground was familiar to Kenekes, for the niche was near the foot of the declivity.

Halfway down he called again, and the answer came up from the hiding place of Athor. In another moment they were within and beside the prostitute form of the old Israelite. Rachel dropped on her knees, crying out in her solitude.

"The Lord God break them in pieces and his fury be upon them!" Rachel cried. "They set upon her and beat her and left her to the jackals!"

"Set consume them!" Kenekes responded wrathfully. "How came they upon you?"

After a grim silence, broken only by the low weeping of Rachel, Kenekes bade her continue.

"The search they made for you was not thorough, for one was ill and both were afraid. But they came upon the statue again, and the sight of it mocked them, so they overthrew it and broke it."

Kenekes drew a sharp breath and glanced at the place where Athor should have been. Except for themselves, the niche was evidently vacant.

He turned to the two women, who had talked softly together in Hebrew, and spoke lightly.

"We have shelter for this night, safer than any other place in all Egypt. Trouble no more concerning that. The shelter for us is in the cliff to the north, near Toors. It is a tomb, but others before us have partaken of the dead's hospitality."

Taking Deborah up, Kenekes settled her on one strong arm against his breast. The free hand he extended to Rachel, who had taken the matting, and together they went laboriously down the steep front of the hill.

He had covered his boat well with the tangle of sedge and marsh vines, and after a long space of search he found it.

Once again he lifted Deborah and laid her in the bottom of the boat. With its triple burden the bar sank low in the water, but Kenekes wielded the oars carefully. The faint moonlight showed him the way. Now and then a red glimmer across the grain marked the location of a farmer's hut, but there was no other sign of life. Even at the Memphian shore there was little activity.

When the line of cultivation ended Kenekes knew he was in the precincts of the Marsh of the Discontented Soul. He rowed across what he believed to be one-half of its width and drew into the reeds. He dragged the bar far up on the shore, once more lifted Deborah and started up the warm sand.

STATE OF TERROR

Tartars Are Overrunning the Whole of the South-east Caucasus.

THE PEOPLE IN FLIGHT

Refugees From the Stricken District Are Pouring Into the Protected Cities.

Tartar Bands Are Scouring the Country Laying It Waste With Fire and Sword.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 6.—A dispatch from Tiflis says: "The whole of the South-east Caucasus is now terrorized by Tartars. Refugees are pouring in here from Baku, Elizabethpol and Shusha."

"Details from Shusha show that several engagements were fought between Tartars and Armenians behind regular positions and that a considerable part of the town was soon in flames."

According to an official estimate more than 200 houses were destroyed."

Famine Adds to Horror.

Baku, Sept. 6.—Troops under the direction of the governor are acting with the utmost vigor, but have not succeeded in restoring order, although there is rather less firing. Armed rioters yesterday attacked the oil works in the suburb of Balakhan and after a hot fight set fire to them. Tartar bands are scouring the country, murdering and pillaging. The country is in a state of wild panic and houses and farms are being abandoned. The famine in many parts of the country renders the situation more terrible.

Sanguinary Fighting.

Elizabethpol, Caucasus, Sept. 6.—Sanguinary fighting has taken place between Tartars and Armenians in the village of Khankend. There is great alarm here. All the Armenian shops are closed and troops are patrolling the streets day and night.

Merchants Are Alarmed.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 6.—The minister of finance has received a telegram from the governing committee of the bourse at Nishni Novgorod, urgently appealing to him to adopt immediate measures for the re-establishment of order at Baku.

Peasant Uprising.

Katais, Caucasus, Sept. 6.—A conflict between nobles and peasants took place in the village of Grand-le. Eleven persons were killed or wounded.

PLAY IN THE NAVY

Powerful Fleet Gathers at Provincetown For Athletics.

Provincetown, Mass., Sept. 6.—The largest and most powerful fleet of war ships that ever assembled in Eastern waters is at anchor today in Provincetown harbor and 6,000 men have liberty on shore. A long program of athletic sports has been arranged.

The fleet consists of the battleships Maine, Alabama, Kearsage, Kentucky, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Massachusetts and Texas; the cruisers Brooklyn, Tacoma and Chattanooga; the gunboats Yankton and Wasp and the monitors Nevada, Florida and Arkansas. The cruisers Newark and Atlanta and the training ship Hartford are expected today.

Mexican's Munificent Offer.

Mexico City, Sept. 6.—Pedro Alvarado, the millionaire of Parral, a laborer working in a mine for 50 cents a day only a few years ago, has made a strike of fabulous richness in his Palmilla mine. Alvarado has removed his offer to President Diaz to pay the public debt of Mexico. He says that he obtains his wealth from the ground and that he thinks the government is entitled to a good portion of it.

Jeffries Accepts.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 6.—The last remaining obstacle to the completion of preparations for the Brit-Nelson glove contest was removed when James Jeffries telegraphed his acceptance of the offer to act as referee. Both men are in perfect condition. The odds remain at 10 to 7, with Brit on the long end, though Nelson's friends predict he will be quoted at a better figure within a few days.

Required 1,372 Ballots.

Newark, O., Sept. 6.—The deadlock over the nomination of a candidate for Republican state senator that has been on since July 18 in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Ohio districts, was broken yesterday by the nomination of Prof. W. L. Atwell, a public school teacher of Johnstown, Licking county. A total of 1,372 ballots had been taken.

A GREAT WORKER

Governor Gives State House People Lessons in Punctuality.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 6.—Governor J. Frank Hanly has gone to Williamsport to spend three or four days with Judge J. M. Rabb. It is the only vacation he expects to take this year. It is understood that the governor expects to devote a very considerable portion of his time to his law enforcement campaign. The governor is a great worker. He is always down in the morning ahead of the attaches of his office. He only spends a few minutes away at noon and generally he is among the last men out of the state house at night.

A well-known politician from the Fifth district, who was here today, predicted that Congressman Elliot Holliday, of Brazil, will have a hard fight in obtaining another nomination. Holliday has always had to fight for what he got and the coming campaign promises to be no exception. Otis E. Gully, of Danville, is already in the race and Senator Thomas Moore, of Greencastle, author of the Moore temperance law of the last legislature, will probably enter the race. Terre Haute may have a candidate, so Holliday will have his hands full swinging things his way again.

The Republican and Democratic organizations will take the sixty day poll Thursday and Friday. A special effort will be made to obtain a correct list of the voters who are dissatisfied with the candidates of their own party. C. A. Bookwalter, the Republican majority candidate and his friends are confident that the dissension among the Republicans is nothing like it was two years ago when it resulted in his defeat. They say that the Republicans who are anti-Bookwalter this time have no leaders and will not cut much figure in this campaign.

According to Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health, a scarlet fever epidemic is imminent in Indiana. He has received information from several communities where the disease is spreading and unless extraordinary precautions are taken he fears that many children will be afflicted. Up to this time the disease has appeared in a mild form, but Dr. Hurty says it increases in virulence as an epidemic spreads. A large section of the south side has been quarantined on account of the spread of the disease in this city.

A report was received here today that Robert W. Miers, of Bloomington, who represented the Second Indiana district in congress for eight years, being defeated last November by the landslide, may not be a candidate for renomination as has been generally expected. He has returned to the practice of law at Bloomington and is making no effort to get into the race. He says that he has not fully determined what he will do politically.

BETTER CONDITIONS

Modern Sanitation a Need Which New Orleans Recognizes.

New Orleans, Sept. 6.—Yellow fever reports to 6 p. m.: New cases yesterday, 22; total to date, 2,111; deaths yesterday, 2; total to date, 294; new foci, 9; cases under treatment, 330; cases discharged, 1,487.

The impression which Monday's unexpected leap in new-cases caused gave way to a feeling of intense satisfaction yesterday when there was renewed evidence that yellow fever here is almost completely under control. Improved sanitation in all the built-up parts of the city will be the inevitable result of the passing misfortune. The federal authorities who have been here in the thick of the fight point out that there is wide room for it. The sewerage and water system which is now under construction is intended to supply a population of 800,000, more than double that of the city at present. Sixteen million of dollars are being spent on sewerage, water and drainage.

Kemura at Boston.

Boston, Sept. 6.—Baron Komura and his suite, accompanied by Governor John Sealane, of New Hampshire, reached this city last night from Portsmouth. The party was driven to the hotel Touraine where they remained over night. This forenoon the Baron was escorted to Harvard university where lunch was served at the Colonial club.

Shot Through Window.

Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 6.—Thomas Watters, colored, a barber of Clinton, last evening went to the home of John Girard in Clinton and fired a shotgun through the window, killing Lydia Grant, of Kenny, Ill., and fatally wounded Mrs. Alex Jackson, daughter of Girard. Both women are white. Jealousy is supposed to be the motive. Watters escaped.

Suspicion of Horrid Fate.

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 6.—Thomas F. Grindell, principal of the public schools at Douglas, who has been exploring the Tiburon Islands in the Gulf of California, inhabited by Serindians said to be cannibals, has not been heard from since June 1. His brother, E. P. Grindell, left today with a searching party to seek him.

Boston, Sept. 6.—Edward Edwards,

dramatic editor of the Boston Transcript and one of the best known newspaper men in the city, is dead.

A CLEANING UP

Government Printing Office Affairs Will Get An Airing.

OUSTED FROM OFFICE

Public Printer Palmer Has Been Given His Walk in Papers by President Roosevelt.

Recent Discussions in the Big Print Shop Demanded Executive Action.

Washington, Sept. 6.—Public Printer W. F. Palmer practically has been ousted from office. It is learned authoritatively that President Roosevelt has demanded Mr. Palmer's resignation to take effect on the 15th inst.

The demand of the president for Mr. Palmer's resignation was due primarily to the latter's action in trying to force Oscar J. Ricketts, foreman of printing, and L. C. Hay, a foreman of division, out of the government printing office. Mr. Palmer asked for the resignations of Ricketts and Hay on the ground that they had been insubordinate. The public printer formulated a series of charges against the two men. These charges, it is known were forwarded to Oyster Bay. As soon as President Roosevelt learned of the situation that had developed he directed Public Printer Palmer to forward to him his resignation, to take effect in two weeks.

It has been known for some time that Mr. Palmer would not be re-appointed to his present office. For several months before President Roosevelt left Washington for Oyster Bay he was casting about for a suitable man for the position of public printer. He offered it to John A. Schleicher, of New York, but he declined it. The investigation made by the Keop commission into the letting of a contract for seventy-two typesetting machines for use in the government printing office disclosed a serious condition of affairs in the management of the office. Prominent men in the office force were divided into cliques. These cliques were so detrimental to the interests of the government that the standard of efficiency in the establishment was reduced materially.

The evidence adduced by the commission in the course of its inquiry created much bitter feeling among the men holding high positions in the office. One of the direct results of this feeling was the demand made by Public Printer Palmer for the resignations of Ricketts and Hay. As the Keop commission inquiry, so far as known, developed nothing to the disadvantage of Ricketts or Hay, the president acted promptly in taking the whole matter out of Palmer's hands and of laying it in the hands of the Keop commission for such further investigation as might be necessary. Coupled with this action of the president was the demand on Mr. Palmer for his resignation.

With the incoming of Mr. Palmer's successor—and there is ample authority for the statement that he has not been selected yet—it is expected a thorough reorganization of the working force of the government printing office will take place.

Among the men mentioned in connection with the office is Oscar J. Ricketts, whom the printer sought to remove; H. T. Bryan, chief clerk of the office; William S. Rossiter, chief clerk of the census bureau, and John Leech, public printer in the Philippines. The office pays a salary of $4,500 a year. The annual disbursements for the government printing office aggregate about $7,000,000.

Auto Claims Two Victims.

Philadelphia, Sept. 6.—While enroute from Atlantic City to Philadelphia in an automobile, Neil Wolfe, secretary and treasurer of an auto company of this city, and Miss Marie Hamill, daughter of a wealthy Germantown shoddy manufacturer, were thrown from the automobile on a bridge over the West New Jersey & Seashore railroad near Ato, N. J., and buried thirty feet to the tracks below. Miss Hamill was almost instantly killed and Mr. Wolfe died soon after. Mr. Wolfe and Miss Hamill were to have been married in December.

War Prisoners Elect Officers.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 6.—The National Association of Union ex-Prisoners of War elected the following officers: National commander, Colonel J. D. Walker, Pittsburg; national senior vice commander, John Kisanee, Cincinnati; national junior vice commander, John T. Parker, Lynn, Mass.; national chaplain, Rev. J. S. Ferguson, Keokuk, Ia.; national historian, Gen. Henry White, Indianapolis; adjutant general and quartermaster general, W. C. McKelvy, Pittsburg.

Lightning Stampedes Crowd.

Richfield, Utah, Sept. 6.—Atlas Bean was killed, his cousin, Dwight Bean, was perhaps fatally injured and a score of others were seriously hurt by a bolt of lightning which struck in the center of a crowd of 1,200 persons who were watching the horse races at the Richfield fair.

GOOD FRIENDS NOW

Former Rival Envoys Have Nothing

but Kind Words for Each Other.

Portsmouth, Sept. 6.—Mr. Witte, the chief of the Russian plenipotentiaries, was the first to sign his name to the treaty. After the ceremony of the signing of the treaty Baron De Rosen delivered a short speech, pointing out the importance of the event and the influence it will have in the relations between the two countries. He ended by expressing the satisfaction he felt at the good relations which have characterized the work of the plenipotentiaries. Baron Komura replied, paraphrasing Baron Rosen's speech and expressing his thanks for the kind words addressed to himself and to the members of his mission.

The entire Russian mission, headed by Mr. Witte, attended a thanksgiving service celebrated in Christ Episcopal church both by American and Russian clergymen.

Re-entering the hotel, one of the chief members of the Japan mission said: "The treaty signed today may be the most important historical feature of the Twentieth century."

Russian Apathy.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 6.—The news of the signing at Portsmouth of the treaty of peace was received here quietly and even with the same apathy that has marked the attitude of the Russian people throughout the war. There was no demonstration and no special means were adopted to make the news known. No extra editions of the newspapers were issued.

PEN, CHISEL AND BRUSH.

Hilton Perry, the sculptor of the bronze fountain of the library of congress, is modeling an equestrian statue of General G. S. Green for the Gettysburg battlefield.

H. C. Chatfield-Taylor of Chicago received his final decoration from a foreign ruler in recognition of his literary attainments. The latest decoration was the order of St. James, conferred by the king of Portugal.

On King Edward's birthday honor list are the names of George Meredith, Sir Laurence Alma-Tadema and William Holman Hunt, upon all of whom is conferred the order of Merit. It is understood that Meredith refused a knighthood.

The late Baldwin Mollhausen had a peculiarity in that in nearly all of his novels the scene is placed partly in Germany, partly in America. He wrote nearly 200 volumes. Western prairies and the Rocky mountains had a fascination for him.

"I thank Dr. Pierce

to him."

"I am thankful to the friend who first recommended your medicine," writes Mrs. Annie M. Brook, of Smithfield, Fayette Co., Pa. "We have a twelve pound baby three weeks old. I took three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' before baby came and the time was only one hour and half. I have had five children, and before this always had a severe time, lasting two or three days, and never was able to do any work for about two months afterward. Now I am doing all the work for four children. My friends say I look better now than ever before. We told one of my sisters to take 'Favorite Prescription,' which she did, and when her child was born the time of suffering was very short. She has better health now than since her marriage—some years ago. We cannot praise Dr. Pierce's medicines enough. I thank Dr. Pierce for the kind advice he gave when I wrote to him. Whenever I see other women suffering I tell them about your wonderful medicines."

The benefits resulting from a consultation by letter with Dr. Pierce are testified to by thousands of grateful women who have been made new women by his medical advice and fatherly counsel given absolutely without cost or fee.

Sick and ailing women, especially those suffering from chronic diseases, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential.

Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for the cure of womanly ills. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is the best preparative for maternity, giving the mother strength to give her child, and making the baby's advent practically painless.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 large pages, in paper cover, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A SHOE SALE.

To meet the unprecedented demand for Tan Oxfords this season we have been obliged to carry an enormous stock. Our inventory just taken shows that we still have practically complete assortments of the most desirable styles. Since our store policy permits of no carrying over of unseasonable goods from one year to another, and in order positively to insure a quick clearance of these lines we announce a sale on all of our light weight summer shoes.

He shook his head. "It lies between me and Atsu to care for you, and the peril for you and for us is equal. My name is as good as published, for I am gifted with a length of limb beyond my fellows. I was found before the statue, and they, describing me to the priests, will prove to the priests, who know my calling, that the son of Mentu has committed sacrilege. And the priesthood would not wait till dawn to take me."

"I will stay with thee, Kenekes," she said simply.

He became conscious of the collar on his breast and drew it forth.

"With this," he began, assuming a lightness, "I fear I have thee against one day and thou hast held it against me. Now let me heal that wound and sweeten thy regard for me with this same offending trinket. Wilt thou take it as a peace offering from my hands and wear it always?" She bent toward him, and with worshiping hands, he put aside the loosened braids and clasped the necklace about her throat.

"There are ten rings," he continued. "Let them be named thus," telling them off with his fingers. "This first of all—Hope—it shall be thy stay; this—Faith—it shall comfort thee; this—Good Works—it shall publish thee; this—Sacrifice—it shall win thee many victories; this—Chastity—it shall be thy name; the next—Wisdom—it shall guide thee; after it—Steadfastness—it shall keep thee in all those things; Truth—it shall brood upon thy lips; Beauty—it shall not perish; this, the last, is Love, of which there is naught to be said. It speaketh for itself."

Their eyes met at his last words and for a moment dwelt. Then Rachel looked away.

"Are the fastenings secure?" she asked.

"Firm as the virtues in a good woman's soul."

"They will hold. I would not lose one of them."

A long silence fell. The curious activity of desert life, interrupted for the time by the presence of the fugitives, resumed its tempo and droned on about them.

The two in the shortening shadow of the great rock were glad of the water bottle. The need for it of comfortable shelter for Rachel began to appeal urgently to Kenekes. He put aside his dreams and thought aloud.

"What cover may I offer thy dear head this night?" he began. "We may not return to the camp, for there of a surety they lie in wait for us. Toor is deserted and so tempting a spot of fugitives that it will be searched immediately. Not a hovel this side of the Nile but will be visited. I would take thee to my father."

"Nay," she said firmly. "I will take affliction to none of you. Already have I undone two of the best of Egypt. I will carry the distress no further."

After a silence he began again. "How far wilt thou trust me, Rachel?"

She raised her face and looked at him with serious eyes.

"In all things useful which thou wilt require of me."

"And thou must sleep this night in an open boat?"

She nodded.

"Tomorrow, then," he continued, taking her hand, "we shall reach Nehap-ehu, where I can hide thee with some of the peasantry on my father's lands. And there thou canst abide until I go to Tape and return."

"Thou must know," he continued, explaining, "the Athor of the hills is not my first sacrifice. Once I committed a worse. After the death of Ramoses we went to Tape, my father and I, to inscribe the hatchments and carve the scene of the judgment of the dead in the tomb of the great king. Now, I am my father's only child and have been taught his craft. I have been an apt pupil, and he had no fear in trust-

Attention Republicans.

The republicans of Seymour, Indiana, will meet in mass convention at the city building on Monday, Sept. 11th, at 1:30 o'clock for the purpose of electing one committeeman from each precinct of the city. Said committeeman after being selected will meet and elect a chairman, secretary and treasurer. By order of
H. E. McDONALD, City Chairman.

AFTER due deliberation we have come to the conclusion that since the commission saw fit to locate the Southeastern Indiana Hospital at Madison we will never apply for a room in that institution. Our disappointment is very pronounced and Jackson county may declare a boycott.

THE Indianapolis Star, usually so accurate in its statements of news was in error Tuesday in saying that the bill for the new insane hospital was engineered through the legislature by the legislators from Bartholomew. The fact is the bill was originally prepared here at Seymour and was introduced in both branches of the legislature by the members from Jackson. There was no opposition to the bill whatever and needed no engineering. Every representative but one voted for it. The bill as it passed was Governor Hanly's idea and in that as in most of his recommendations he was heartily supported by the legislature.

Confetti Forbidden.

The throwing of confetti or any other annoying articles on the Streets of Seymour are absolutely forbidden. Public peace take notice.

G. G. GRAESSLE, Mayor.
LON PREWITT, Marshall.

Circuit Court.

The September term of the Jackson circuit court will convene next Monday with Judge Lewis on the bench. A number of new cases have been filed and the term promises to be a very busy one.

Report comes to town that Arthur Rogers, of the Cana neighborhood in Jennings county fell from the roof of a building on which he was working receiving very serious injuries.

Rev. A. B. Conrad, pastor of the First Baptist church, and a dozen or more other members of this church, went to Uniontown today to attend the Brownstown Baptist Association.

STRINGTOWN ON THE PIKE.

Mrs. Bruce Owens and children of Seymour, were the guests of Mrs. Armittie Owens the latter part of last week.

Will Williams, of Indianapolis, is visiting his cousin, Curtis Wiesman. Miss Mina Briner spent Sunday with Miss Jessie Owens.

Ira Gillespie and family visited Rev. Price and family of Scottsburg Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gillespie visited Milford Stewart and family Sunday.

A great many of our people will see Wallace's show at Seymour Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gillespie and granddaughter, Laura, attended the birthday surprise given George Bedel of Uniontown last week.

PEA RIDGE.

Mrs. Angeline Holmes is visiting her son, John and family, at Bedford this week.

Several from here attended the show and Labor Day at Bedford.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Woolery attended church at Wray's Sunday.

Mr. Leroy Weddell and son, Carl, of Medora, were on the ridge Monday to get peaches.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Lawson went to Louisville Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Wilson.

Master Russel Holmes called on Master Clyde Martin Sunday.

Mr. S. H. Trueblood, of Vincennes came Sunday on the excursion to visit friends.

Misses Lillie and Alice Martin attended church at Cana Sunday.

CARNIVAL QUEEN.

Miss Myrtle Baker Chosen Though
Contest Was Close.

The Carnival Queen Contest closed at noon today and when the votes were counted it was found that Miss Myrtle Baker led the list and therefore will be crowned Queen of the Carnival. All the other young ladies who remained in the contest until the end received loyal support and made a splendid showing. They are all popular young ladies and each one has a host of friends.

The final vote stood as follows:
" Myrtle Baker, 2144
" Helen M. Gates, 1944
" Elsie Aufderheide, 1853
" Hazel Stevens, 1259
" Hattie Niemeyer, 436
Miss Baker will receive the first prize, a diamond ring. The second prize, a gold watch and chateleine chain will be awarded to Miss Gates. The third prize, a gold monogram bracelet goes to Miss Aufderheide and Miss Stevens and Miss Niemeyer will each be awarded an opal ring.

This evening at 6:45 all these young ladies will meet at the REPUBLICAN office from where they will be driven in carriages to the stage at Second and Ewing where Miss Baker will be crowned Queen of the Carnival at 7 o'clock. This is an event you will want to witness so be down town early.

DIED.

GERRISH.—Mortimer Gerrish, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. F. Gerrish, died at 11:15 this Wednesday morning, September 6, at the home of his parents on north Walnut Street, at the age of twenty-six years, seven months and nine days.

Since Sunday night he has been confined to his bed with typhoid fever and has been in an unconscious condition the greater part of the time.

Mortimer was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on January 27, 1879 and lived there until June 1881 when his parents moved to Seymour on his father's completion of college work. Since then he has lived here all of the time, living a simple life at home with his mother always. He has within the last few years become a member of the Holiness church and has taken a very great interest in all the work of that church and congregation. Just a few weeks ago he attended a Convention of that church at New Albany and was always earnest and zealous in his Christian devotions. His death comes as a great loss to his parents who have exerted all efforts to make his life happy and good.

Definite arrangements as to the funeral services have not been made but will be announced later. Relatives are expected from many places and will probably delay the services until Saturday.

MALARIA

UNDERMINES THE HEALTH

When the germs of malaria enter the blood the entire health is affected, and if the blood is not purified of these germs and microbes, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Liver Stitches, Chills and Fever, Boils, Aches and Pains, and a great variety of troubles manifest themselves. Soon the entire system is undermined, leaving the sufferer a prey to a most miserable, weak and nervous condition.

913 W. Market St., Louisville, Ky.
For several years I suffered with Chills and Fever, caused by Malaria in my system, and each summer for several years I would have a relapse. Finally my physician prescribed S. S. S. I took a few bottles; this was about six years ago. It entirely cured me, and I have never been troubled since. I am sure no other medicine could have given me so complete and immediate relief, and I cannot speak too highly of S. S. S. My partner in business is now taking S. S. S. for an eruption of the skin, and a general run-down condition of the system, and although he has taken but one bottle, already commences to feel better.

S. S. S. counteracts and drives all the poison from the blood and builds up the system by its fine purifying qualities and tonic effects. It strengthens every part, increases the appetite, helps the stomach and digestion, and by supplying the body with rich, pure blood, cures Malaria and all its disagreeable ailments. Unlike most blood medicines S. S. S. is purely vegetable. It does not contain a particle of mineral of any kind to disagreeably affect the stomach, digestion and bowels, but by cleansing and strengthening the blood, puts every part of the body in healthy condition. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired without charge.

The French View of It.

Paris, Sept. 6.—The newspapers today hail the signing of the treaty of peace with profound satisfaction, laying stress on the concise form of the historical document with a clear allusion to the future friendship of the two nations. The Journal says the document proves that the emperor of Russia and the emperor of Japan were inspired by President Roosevelt's intelligence and tenacity. However, it adds, the belligerents displayed superior common sense in subordinating their national pride to the interests of their respective countries. The Humaine invites France to seek Japanese friendship.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bedwetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root, pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers.

In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest of the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. For sale by W. F. Peter Drug Co.

BUILT TO WEAR.

Ahlbrand's Vehicles Attracting Much Attention.

The Ahlbrand Carriage Company has a fine display of buggies in front of their factory on south Chestnut street. Others are in their sales room and all of them are attracting the attention of everybody who passes that way.

The Ahlbrand vehicles are known as the "built-to-wear" line and this trade mark tells the truth.

This company will display a fine line of buggies and carriages at the Indiana and Illinois state fairs. Their vehicles have a wide sale in both of these states and what they build is rapidly gaining in favor for they are built to wear and in appearance there are none finer.

This company has just sold and delivered to Undertaker Hustedt a very fine brougham, or closed carriage which is up-to-date in all its appointments and is admired by everyone who sees it.

The Wallace Shows.

The Great Wallace Shows have come and gone and the people throughout this vicinity are pleased to say that this was surely the best ever seen here. There was a great crowd in town and the circus was well patronized. In this circus are many features that you do not see in other shows and everything is worth seeing.

Mr. Wallace has many personal friends in this city who always speak kindly of his great show. He and his chief men are as clever as you ever find and they make friends wherever they go.

J. P. Fagan who has been with this show for years is at home in Seymour where he has a host of friends. In him Mr. Wallace has a valuable man.

The Effective Remedy

WASHINGTON, Iowa, April 4, 1905.

I was troubled for over a year with so scanty a flow that it was virtually suppression. A heavy cold superinduced this condition and nothing I could do seemed to help me. The only effective remedy I ever found was Wine of Cardui. Within two weeks I felt the good effects of the medicine and after I had used 13 bottles in all I was as healthy and regular as any woman could wish to be.

My sister used it while expecting to become a mother and found that it made childbirth comparatively easy and after the child was born she found that it helped her to regain her strength.

Jeune Root

GRAND WORTHY ASSOCIATE, SORE OF TEMPERANCE.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui cures nine out of every ten cases of the disorders of menstruation. These cures are permanent, whether the trouble is complicated or not.

Wine of Cardui cures the sickness of young girls, relieves the weakness of adults, banishes leucorrhoea, headaches, backaches and nervousness and eases the crisis attendant on the change of life.

Thousands of mothers besides Miss Root's sister have found grateful relief from the pains of childbirth and have had a quick and happy recovery from its use. You cannot afford to suffer when $1.00 bottles are sold by all druggists.

TOWNSHIP WINS

Warrants Issued by a Former Trustee Will Not Be Paid.

WAS POLITICAL ISSUE

A Jennings County Township Trustee Bought a Stone Crusher Away Back in 1894.

Dispute Over the Payment For the Same Has Just Been Settled by Court.

North Vernon, Ind., Sept. 6.—The suit of Vernon township against Henry Carney, of Franklin, has been decided in the Bartholomew circuit court in favor of the township. This suit springs from a purchase by Colonel Thomas, former trustee of Vernon township, of a stone crusher, from P. Blair, of Indianapolis, in 1894. Blair sold the warrants given by Thomas in payment for the crusher, to Carney. Six years ago J. A. Todd, was elected trustee, and he refused to honor the warrants, and Carney brought suit. The trial was postponed several times, till the election two years ago, when it became a political issue. The Democrats nominating a brother of Colonel Thomas, and the Republicans alleged that he would dismiss the suit. Thomas had but three majority when the returns came in. He continued the same attorneys, and as a result, Carney loses the whole thing, besides having to pay back $600 which he had already received. Blair will be asked to refund $684.50, which the township has paid to him. The warrants called for a total of $2,350.

MONON TRAIN DERAILED

Indianapolis-Chicago Limited Ditched by a Broken Engine.

Hammond, Ind., Sept. 6.—Two hundred and fifty passengers on the Indianapolis-Chicago Limited, on the Monon railway, narrowly escaped a wreck just west of this city through an accident to the big driving wheels of the engine. The engine, mail coach and baggage coach left the rails at the top of an embankment, but kept on the right-of-way. Italian section men, working on the Erie double track near the Monon, also had a narrow escape from being killed. No one was seriously injured.

EVERY TAXPAYER A PLAINTIFF

Change of Venue Taken Outside the Judicial Circuit.

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 6.—M. D. Yontz, representative of the W. B. Burford company, requested for change of venue outside this judicial circuit, in the case of the Indianapolis-Chicago Limited, which is indicted for alleged failure to connect with the raising of the bid for county stationery, and it goes to Ft. Wayne. The affidavit for a change of venue alleges that all taxpayers in this county are really plaintiffs, and a jury could not be secured.

Fell to His Death.

Otterbom, Ind., Sept. 6.—D. Rofgen, a fireman on the Lake Erie & Western railway, was found dead along the track. He was working on the outside of the engine, which was moving slowly at the time, and it is supposed that he slipped off and was killed by the pilot.

Farmer Slain by Bull.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 6.—August Schmieder and wife, living in Warwick county, near here, were attacked by a bull in their barn yard. Mrs. Schmieder was but slightly hurt, but her husband was so badly injured that he died in ten minutes.

Neuralgia And Other Pain.

All pain in any disease is nerve pain, the result of a turbulent condition of the nerves. The stabbing, lacerating, darting, burning, agonizing pain that comes from the prominent nerve branches, or sensory nerves, is neuralgia, and is the "big brother" of all the other pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills rarely ever fail to relieve these pains by soothing these larger nerves, and restoring their tranquility.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills leave no bad after-effects, and are a reliable remedy for every kind of pain, such as headache, backache, stomachache, sciatica, rheumatism and neuralgia. They also relieve Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Car-Sickness, and Distress after eating.

"For many years I have been a constant sufferer from neuralgia and headache, and have never been able to obtain any relief from various headache powders and capsules, until I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They always cure my headache in five minutes time." FRID R. SWINGLEY, Cashier 1st Nat. Bank, Atkinson, Neb.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

PEACE NOT ABIDING

London Holds That Treaty May Not Prevent Another War.

London, Sept. 6.—The publication of the terms of the treaty signed by the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries yesterday confirms the London morning newspapers in their belief that a lasting peace is to be expected rather as the outcome of the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance than as the result of the Portsmouth conference. It is considered that there is little in the articles of the treaty of Portsmouth to prevent Russia, if she should be so disposed a few years hence, attempting to recover what she has lost.

The Standard editorially declares that the treaty lacks the element of finality and expresses the strong opinion that if it stood alone it would not have been accepted by the Japanese plenipotentiaries.

The Daily Telegraph says that the treaty really is a genuine attempt to restore peace and friendship between the two empires and their empires.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Aches And Pains Will Disappear If The Advice Of This Seymour Citizen Is Followed

A woman's back has many aches and pains. Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault. Backache is really kidney ache. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Seymour women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. S. A. Gibson, of 306 East Second street, says: "As far as my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills is concerned I can highly recommend them. I was troubled with pains over the loins and my back was weak and lame. I also had depressing headaches, pains in the back of my neck, was nervous and restless nights and morning felt more exhausted than when I went to bed. Doan's Kidney Pills sold by Mr. Milhouse the druggist cured me of all these symptoms. I found them very easy to take and they caused no inconvenience while their quick and positive action gratified me highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

PACKERS ON DEFENSIVE

They Will Demand Separate Trials on Conspiracy Charge.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—Twenty-one separate trials may be demanded before federal judges by the Chicago packers indicted on charges of conspiracy in restraint of trade, within the next two weeks. After the matter of pleading had been continued until Sept. 18 by Judge Humphrey yesterday, many of the attorneys interested in the case held a consultation and at least one agreement was reached whereby a separate trial will be demanded from the government. This move was anticipated by the government and every effort will be made by the federal authorities to offset the requests of the defendants.

Assistant Attorney General Oliver Pagin in speaking of the contemplated demands for separate trials, declared that it is not probable that separate hearings will be granted by the federal courts under the one indictment charging conspiracy.

"All these defendants are included in the one indictment charging conspiracy in restraint of trade," said Attorney Pagin. "Conspiracy, of course, will be the essence of the case and inasmuch as it takes all of these defendants together to form the alleged conspiracy there is no reason why they should not be tried together and the government will use every effort to have all the defendants tried at the same time."

SEEING AMERICA.

Wonderful Scenic Trip Across Rocky Mountains to Oregon Exposition.

In certain respects the excursions to the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, Portland, Ore., via Pennsylvania Lines, beginning May 23rd and continuing through the summer, offer advantages never before presented to Exposition visitors. The trip to the Oregon Exposition, in addition to the attractiveness of the extensive exhibits, includes the journey through the scenic wonderland of the Rocky Mountains and the Cascade Range, and what American has not looked forward from the days of the geography class in school to the time when these great sights should be seen in reality? The time was never so favorable as now. The trip may be made less expensive than ever. For only a light difference in fare tourists may extend their trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The return trip may be made over a different route, enabling travelers to view much more of the west. For full particulars, fares, dates of special excursions to Portland on account of conventions, through time and passenger service apply to ticket agent of Pennsylvania Lines.
